UNIVERSITY OF ST. MICHAEL'S COLLEGE

THE SWORD

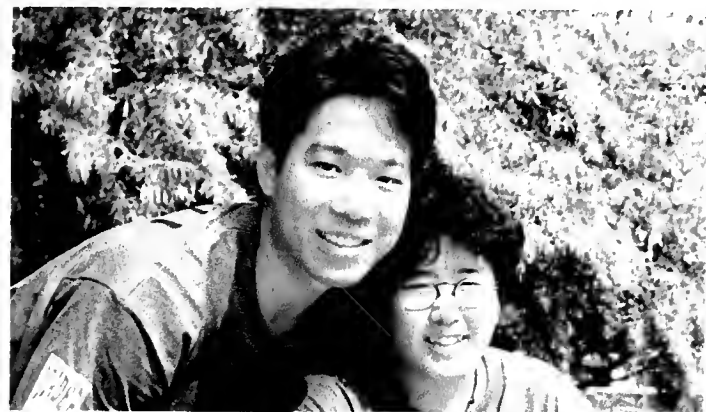

The yearbook's cover features a contemporary depiction of the traditional crest of the University of St. Michael's College crest of the archangelic sword flanked by the wings. The new design was illustrated by Otino Corsano (A.O.C., senior, emerging specialist in Fine Art Studio) who combined 17th century anamorphic imagery with his personal gestural style in the development and execution of the work.

The winged sword appears on the St. Michael's Coat of Arms which was adopted by the University of St. Michael's College on May 3, 1980. The winged sword of St. Michael has long been used as the symbol of the College.

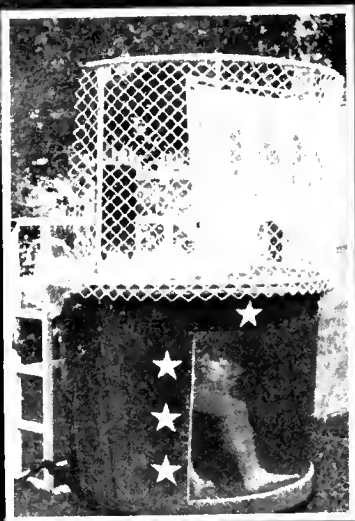

“The gigantic event was an enormous success due to the major contributions of the towering Co-ordinators, massive Marshals, immense Leaders and vital Support Staff. The event was well planned and jam packed with event and fun-filled activities . . .

ADMINISTRATIVE

PRESIDENT

I am very glad to have this opportunity to wish the members of the St. Michael's community well, for myself, and for the faculty and administration as a whole. To those students graduating this year, in particular, go my best wishes for the future.

This book will serve to remind you of the things that have made St. Michael's special to you - your friends, studies, and activities.

Best wishes for you - your happiness and success. (Photo was supplied by Gilbert Studios Ltd.)

MR. RICHARD ALWAY

DIRECTOR OF ALUMNI AFFAIRS

1996 - a very good year. The year that you members of the Class of 9T6 receive your undergraduate degrees and embarked on new careers. It is also a year of renewal at St. Michael's. The Cloverhill building, first opened in September of 1856, has been undergoing renewal, and will celebrate its 140th birthday completely renovated and ready to provide ever better service to our academic community. You have observed the progress of the renewal, but you have also contributed to the renewal that is ever in progress at St. Michael's. As was true of those who have gone before you, your youthful energy, intellectual curiosity, mental gifts, and abiding faith have been a source of renewal, of new life, to the College. We are grateful, and we thank you.

In the years to come, may this book renew your memories in what we hope have been among the happiest years of your life and be a source of renewed life in you.

MR. JOSEPH BOYLE

PRINCIPAL

Congratulations to all of the graduates of 1996, and to the achievements of the student body. Knowing you and working with you has been very good. The Sword allows our expressions of solidarity and good wishes to be immortalized in the yearbook. This is a great service to the St. Michael's community, which The Sword has carried out with intelligence and style, starting off with the renaming of the yearbook, and the reformatting of the book. My thanks and congratulations to Michael Lee-Poy, Janet Loo and the staff of The Sword for their special contribution to the ongoing life of St. Michael's College.

SR. MECHTILDE O'MARA

VICE-PRESIDENT ADMINISTRATION

Best wishes to all readers of the latest St. Michael's College Yearbook - The Sword. May this book serve as a reminder for you of the good times and the 'growth experiences', of the fun and learning that was part of 1995-1996 for you at St. Michael's. Sometimes a picture can recall for you the whole atmosphere, the people and the events which contribute to your education. In years to come you can rekindle your memories with this book.

The purpose of St. Michael's, in Greek on our motto, is to teach goodness, discipline and knowledge. I hope that these are included in what you have learned here. Sometimes it is only by hindsight that we come to the realization of what the most important learnings were.

In a special way, I thank those of you who helped to tell others about the College by participating in the production of the St. Michael's video, circulated this year for the first time.

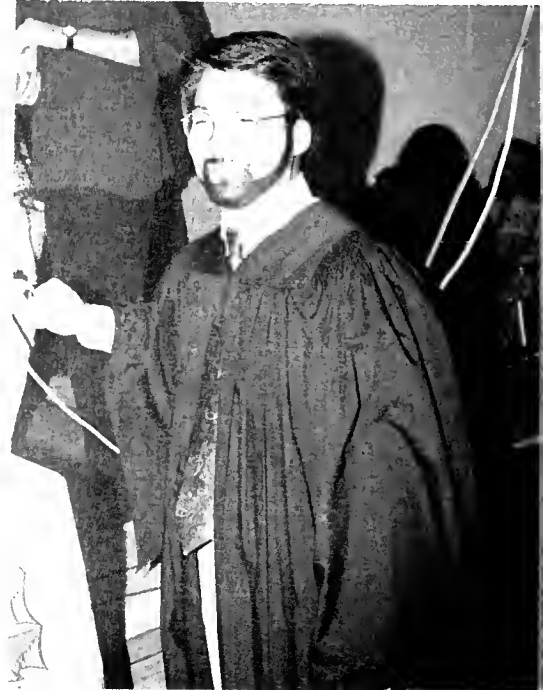

Best wishes for the future. Keep in touch with St. Michael's.

ST. MICHAEL'S
EVENT

WINTERFEST

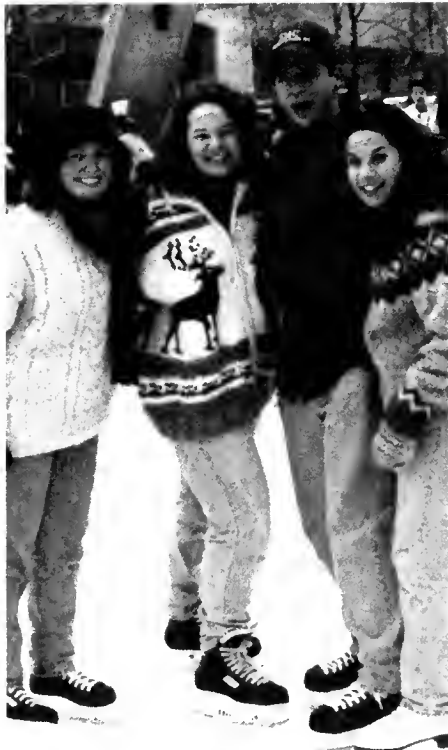

St. Mike's students were welcomed back into the fray of collegiate life with a slew of frosty festivities known collectively as Winterfest '96.

Events began early the morning of Friday, January 12 as St. Mike's own version of the Crazy Cunucks took to the slopes of Blue Mountain. Students hit the powder all day on skis or the ever trendy snow board.

The highlight of this years festivities was without a doubt the Winterfest Double Pub, hosted by St. Mike's on the Friday evening. The pub featured two floors of fun with a DJ spinning records in the Coop, and bands The Walk and headliner's the Killjoys performing solid sets on the upper level of Brennan Hall.

Saturday featured an array of athletic activites including ice skating at Nathan Philips Square. The weekend was capped by a pub at Vic which lacked the energy of the St. Mike's affair, but nonetheless was enjoyable.

The St. Michael's Pubs are events known throughout the whole of U of T. This year, the pubs featured bands such as Rusty, Sandbox, Groovy Religion, The Killjoys (Above), and The Walk (Left). The pubs are events enjoyed by all that attend. This year's S.M.C.S.U. Double Blue Commissioner was Branko Miskov.

ST. MICHAEL'S FACES

LORETTO GIRLS: Loretto Council meets for the start of the school year on their annual summer retreat.

WEB OF DECEPTION: What a tangled web we weave when first we begin to deceive. Flanny's room receives the interior decorating services of Biagio, Melissa and Michael.

ST JOES GIRLS: Frosh girls of St. Joe's discover the famous "29" of residence, and make new friends.

STUDIOUS BY NATURE: Lee Treguin, renowned for his admirable studying habits is not even distracted by a gorgeous spring day outside his window.

INSEPARABLE TRIO: At work, rest and play, Cecilia, Karen and Christina are always within a hand span of each other.

CHEERS: When the exam period ends is when the celebration (fine alcoholic beverage testing) begins.

BRIGHT SMILES: The smiles of Sara Pulins and Irene Morra beam with equal radiance as the Spring sun.

ST. MICHAEL'S
EVENT

DOUBLE BLUE FORMAL 1996

The St. Michael's annual Double Blue Formal seemed like something out of Hollywood, with a star-studded cast of St. Mike's students dressed to the nines. Everyone was camera happy and bulbs flashed non-stop all night. You might have thought that it was the Oscar's with Hugh Grant and Elizabeth Hurley.

The Hollywood Princess (where the ball was held) was right out of a fairy tale with glittering waterfalls, winding staircases and marble floors. The dinner, consisting of a filling seven course meal, was spectacular.

The evening came to an end all too soon as we regretted making our way back to the luxurious grey coaches for the long haul back to Toronto. It truly was "A Night to Remember"

SMCSU would like to thank all the students who participated in SMCSU events this past year. This year has been a great success, and SMCSU has had many great achievements. SMCSU has revitalized the Double Blue Pubs which saw top rate bands of the calibre of Rusty, the Killjoys, and Sandbox, and organized the formal at the Hollywood Princess. SMCSU also saw the re-introduction of the SMUT newsletter and the SMC Volunteer Day. SMCSU also had several new events such as the start of the SMC Info group, many movie nights, and DSAC BBQs.

On an athletic note, St. Mike's teams did us proud with three Championships including Women's Div I Touch Football, Men's Div I Basketball and Women's Div II Basketball - all players and coaches showed the heart and sportsmanship that St. Mike's is proud of.

The uniqueness of SMC to U of T is best displayed through the SAC Blue Crew for which an overwhelming amount of students and support comes from St. Mike's.

SMCSU's willingness to work with other colleges was exemplified with an outstanding Winterfest which saw both St. Mike's and Vic Colleges dedication to ensure good times for their students.

SMCSU worked as a team and a family this year and saw many goals accomplished. We would like to wish St. Michael's students all of the best in school and in the future, and we hope you never forget the years spent at St. Mike's.

ST. ALCAN was commissioned by the Collegium in 1977 to commemorate the 125th anniversary of St. Michael's. The structure consists of sixteen isosceles triangles.

THE CORNER STONE of the Alumni Hall building was laid by Howard Ferguson (the Prime minister of Ontario in 1929) on September 28, 1929.

THE SLIPE honours the students of St. Michael's who gave their lives in WWI, WWII and the Korean War. Their names are permanently etched in stone on the inner walls.

The Architecture of St. Michael's

Many students stroll daily through the St. Michael's campus without taking note of the structures that are present.

This page is dedicated to the unique architecture found only on our campus, such as St. Alcan located in the quad, Alumni Hall, and the slipe which is situated between Fisher House and More House.

1995 - 1996 The Year in Review

We hope you enjoyed reading the Mike this year as much as we enjoyed making it. Sleepless Sunday nights for Editor Mark Slade and Production Manager Anthony Wong were the norm. You'd better appreciate it. Our stomachs have been ruined by endless bags of BBQ Fritos (TM), sour gums, Jumbo Coffees from Coffee Time (TM) and the discovery of Munchos (they are oh so lite- try em!)

Messrs. Wong and Slade have developed unsightly pot-bellies as a result, and plan to work them off this summer, pumping iron at the beach, while listening to Bachman Turner Overdrive... ROCK ON!! That monstrous editor's salary has enabled Mark to purchase that souped-up Suzuki Sidekick he eyed for so many months in the Auto Trader... HEY LADIES!!

It was an extremely dead year for news at somnolent little St. Michael's... but props to the entire Mike staff for MAKING IT HAPPEN. Here's to Dave "so good" Bator (News), Marilisa "Woodbridge wannabe" Racco (Photos?), Renata "Snowmobile Queen" Pistone and Lisa "peace-maker" Damiani (Business Managers), Alex "El Cid" Alcalde (Sports), Jeff "3 Legs"

GHETTO FILES

Kraemer (Features), Grace "Cyclone" McSorley (Advertising), Kevin "Fingo" Santone and Allister "Chauncey" Thompson (Arts). Big thanks to our super-duper columnists Chris Ramsaroop (Da Ghetto Files), Sean Kelly (Metallic Flake), Rob Woods and Rana Sidhu-Singh (World Soccer), and last but not least, Tom McCauliffe (Calvin Chong). Calvin, you made everybody laugh, anyone with a sense of humour, that is.

Next year is the fiftieth anniversary of the Mike. It has gone through a lot of changes over these years, from a humble, typewritten bulletin, to a sassy little bi-weekly. Progress... St. Michael's has changed, and so has the Mike, the newspaper of record for our undergraduate community. -Mark Slade

“Initially it is a place where men come to pursue an education, but eventually find themselves to make friends who magically come to be like brothers. Whether it was competing in sports, partying, studying or just hanging out in the common room, St. Mike's residence is a place where we grew together and learned what the true essence of friendship, loyalty and trust meant. Residence life teaches what classrooms cannot.”

STAFF

THE ST. MICHAEL'S COLLEGE YEARBOOK

MICHAEL LEE-POY
Editor-in-Chief

We live in the present, and strive for the future.
We move forward, and often leave our past behind.
We pause at times to reflect on memories,
Hoping to recapture the glory and triumphs that made us who we are today.

To you, the students of St. Michael's College (U or T) do I proudly present on behalf of the yearbook staff "THE SWORD 1996" that is a collection of all of the activities, joys, and triumphs of this school year.

"THE SWORD" would like to thank many people who made this yearbook possible. First of all, credit goes out to St. Michael's College and the Student Union for their support. Special thanks is also well deserved by: Janet Loo, Veronica Bury and Catherine Linely for their layout expertise; Flanny Alamparambil for typing; Rania Shuggi, Katie Martin, Alex Alcalde, Mark Slade & The Mike Staff for donating photos; Sandra Jezerinac and Lynn Allison (Athletic Center Intramurals Office) for team lists; and also to the students of St. Michael's for their support.

The 1996 Yearbook bears a new look than previous years. The most significant difference is the changing of the yearbook name from "THE WINDROSE" to "THE SWORD" which the staff feels is a name that is more relevant to the College today. There are also new layouts and a complete reorganization of the St. Michael's yearbook. On behalf of the Sword Staff, to you the students, I gladly present "THE SWORD 1996"

1996: A YEAR IN

SEPTEMBER

ORIENTATION WEEK '95
SMC "went big" this year with yet another successful orientation week. Events included the protest parade, Shinerama, Carnival day, and the boat cruise pub.

OCTOBER

VOLUNTEER DAY A SUCCESS

St. Mikes hosted a volunteer day in Brennan Hall Lounge where various volunteer organizations presented recruitment information to students.

NOVEMBER

RES FORMAL A NIGHT OF GLAMOUR AND GLITZ.

This year's residence formal was held at the glamorous Sutton Place Hotel which overlooked the skyline of the city. The event was once again organized by the 3 residence councils.

DECEMBER

RUSTY INVADES XMAS PUB

A great time was had by all who made it to SMC's Christmas Pub. As always, several bands were featured, this year being Groovy Religion, Sandbox, and Rusty.

JANUARY

THE LIFE OF S.M.C.

SMC and VIC PRESENT WINTERFEST '96

SMC students participated in the annual rite of winter through various activities: ice skating, skiing and a double pub featuring the Killjoys.

SMC STUDENTS RALLY FOR CANADA

SMC students joined millions of other Canadians who arrived in Montreal by car, train, and air to participate in a pre-referendum rally for Canada.

FEBRUARY

ROBERT O'DRISCOLL PASSES AWAY

Robert O'Driscoll, Professor and founder of the Celtic Studies program at SMC passed away in Dublin, Ireland on February 29th, 1996. Professor O'Driscoll organized several Celtic studies conferences that attracted internationally renowned scholars, authors, musicians and artists.

SMC WATERING HOLES SHUT DOWN

The Study Hall and The Hare and Hound closed down much to the dismay of SMC students who had made them their social homes.

MARCH

LORETTO COLLEGE HOLDS BINGO NIGHT

The residents of Loretto College hosted its annual bingo night which drew many students to participate. Proceeds from the event went to the Out of the Cold Program.

DOUBLE BLUE BALL A SMASHING SUCCESS

An ambiance of glamour and fun filled the air as SMCSU presented the annual Double Blue Ball at the Hollywood Princess Banquet Hall. Guests were treated to a 7-course Italian dinner and open bar.

SMCSU PRES AND VP ACCLAIMED

SMC went to the polls March 21 and 22 to elect next years SMCSU council: Joe LoPresti and Mike Sokolski were acclaimed as president and vice-president.

At our 18 mines and 10 smelters and refineries, Noranda's people share a common vision.

That is to be the premier exploration, mining and metals company — a company committed to meeting our responsibilities to employees, customers and the environment.

This commitment has helped us become Canada's premier integrated mining, smelting and refining company. Our technical advances in exploration, mining, metallurgy and recycling along with our excellent customer-focused business teams give us a competitive edge — the edge we need to succeed in the zinc, copper, nickel and gold business.

You need a bank as much as you need Orientation Week.
